

Discover Ghana

A Tourist Map of Heritage, Nature, and Culture

2023
15.4 million domestic visitors

2024
1.29 million international visitors

Most visited destinations across Ghana

-

1 Paga Crocodile Pond
Upper East Region

A sacred pond in the Upper East of Ghana and is about 44 kilometers outside the regional capital (Bolgatanga). It is believed that a crocodile brought a dying man to drink and after surviving, he declared the pond sacred. The crocodiles are very friendly so that local children can swim in the pond with them without being harmed.
-

2 Larabanga Mosque
Savannah Region

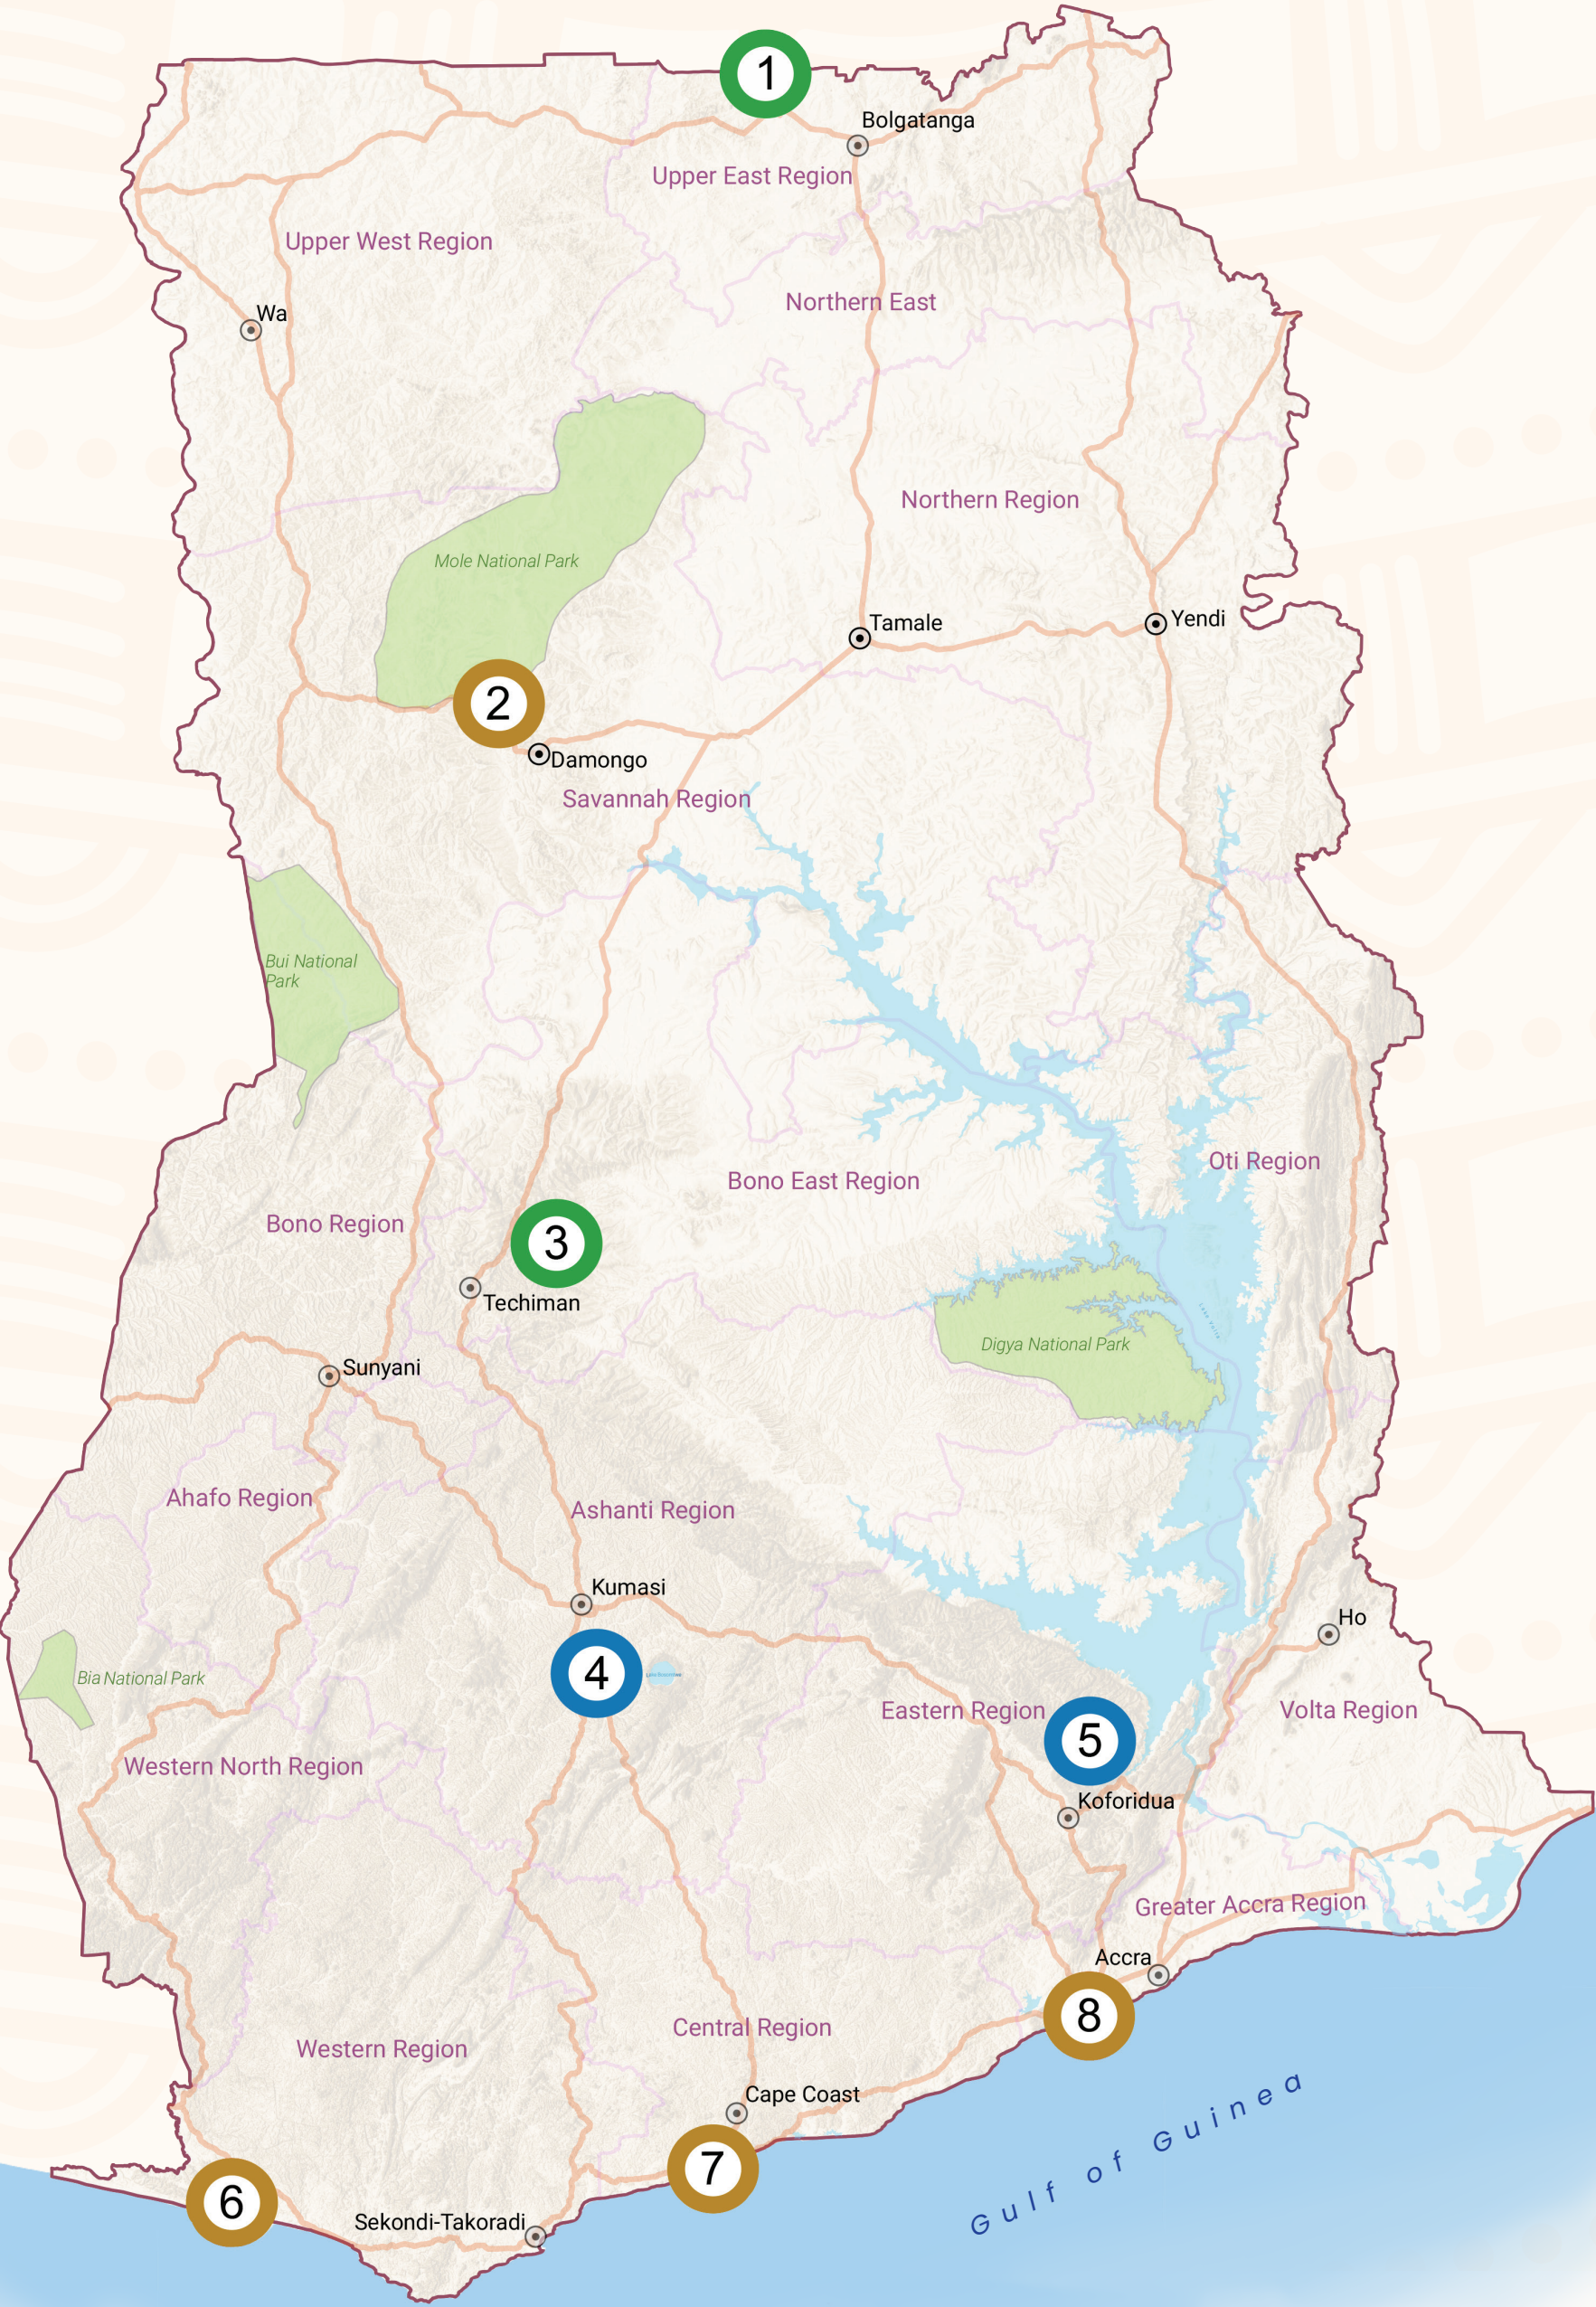

The mosque is located in an Islamic town of Larabanga, about 16 kilometers (9.3 mi) north of Damongo, the regional capital in the West Gonja District of the Savannah Region of Ghana. It is built in Sudanese architectural style and the oldest mosque in the country and one of the oldest in West Africa. The mosque measures about 8 meters by 8 meters and it is referred to as the Mecca of West Africa.
-

3 Boabeng-Fiema Monkey Wildlife
Bono East Region

Is found in a twin community, Boabeng and Fiema of the Bono East Region in Ghana. It is 4.4 kilometers square and believed to have been created since 1970. The place is a home for about 700 monkeys. The sanctuary is about 34 kilometers from the regional capital (Techiman)
-

4 Lake Bosomtwe
Ashanti Region

Bosomtwe is a circular lake formed by an ancient meteorite strike in the Ashanti Region and about 30 km south-east of regional capital (Kumasi). It covers an area of 49 square km and a depth of 70 to 73 meters. It is one of the six UNESCO designated biosphere reserve sites. Traditionally, it is believed that Bosomtwe saved the life of an antelope "Otwe" shot and injured by a hunter by named "Akora Bompe. So "Bosomtwe" means "antelope god" in English.

Where is Ghana?

Ghana is located in West Africa on the Gulf of Guinea

5 Boti Falls Eastern Region

A twin waterfall located 17 km northeast of Koforidua, the Eastern regional capital of Ghana. History has it that the fall was discovered by a white Catholic priest. There are two falls at Boti, the upper falls and the lower falls. The larger one is mythically believed to be the male, and the smaller one the female. According to the local folks, when the two merge, a rainbow is formed. A visit to Boti is a three-in-one pack: the umbrella rock, the three-headed palm tree and the falls themselves.

6 Nzulelu Stilt Village Western Region

The spectacular scenery of the 400-year-old stilt-propped water settlement of Nzulezu is a unique village built on stilts in Lake Tadane, home to hundreds of people in the Western Region. Nzulezu means 'surface of the water'. According to tradition, the ancestors of the village were brought to their present place by a snail. The Village is 90 km west from Takoradi, the regional capital. A 45-minute to one-hour canoe ride traverses narrow channels, open plains, and finally, the village. The ride is safe with life jackets.

7 Cape Coast Castle Central Region

The castle is situated in the capital of Central Region of Ghana. It is the largest of the buildings which contains the legacy of the transatlantic slave trade and a UNESCO World Heritage site. The castle significantly contributed to the arrival of Christianity and the establishment of the first formal education system. The castle has the Gate of No Return, the slave dungeons, and the weapons used in the castle's defence. It also houses the West African Historical Museum, which has the ceremonial drums, old muskets, shackles from the slave trade, and the ancient pottery.

8 Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park Greater Accra Region

Located in Accra, the capital city of Ghana, is the Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park. It has a Mausoleum, which is the final resting place of Ghana's first President. The structure resembles swords, turned upside down, which symbolize peace. The park has a museum that hosts rare artefacts relating to Ghana's independence. Standing in front of the mausoleum and at the exact location where Nkrumah proclaimed Ghana's independence is a full statue of him in bronze wearing a cloth. Some scholars call place the "genesis" of the actual History of Ghana

Co-funded by the European Union

15 years! Cartography M.Sc.

Tourist Sites by Categories

- Heritage & Culture
- Wildlife & Nature
- Water Features

- National Highway
- National Park
- Regional Border
- Lake

Cartography by: Veronica Dadzie Manso
Date: June, 2026
Course: Project Map Creation
Programme: International Masters in Cartography

References

Data Sources:

- Ghana Boundary and Regions: GADM (2022). Database of Global Administrative Areas, Version 4.1. Available at: www.gadm.org Accessed: March 2026
- Cities and Roads: © OpenStreetMap Contributors (2024). Ghana Data Extract. Geofabrik GmbH. Available under Open Database Licence (ODBL). Available at: www.download.geofabrik.de/africa/ghana.html Accessed: March 2026
- National Parks: UNEP-WCMC and IUCN (2026). Protected Planet: The World Database on Protected Areas (WDPA) and World Database on Other Effective

- Area-based Conservation Measures (WD-OCMC) [Online]. June 2026, Cambridge, UK: UNEP-WCMC and IUCN. Available at: www.protectedplanet.net
- Lakes: Made with Natural Earth. Free vector and raster map data. www.naturalearthdata.com Accessed: June 2026
 - Hill shade and ocean from Earth: Airbus, USGS, NASA, NOAA, NOAA, NIS, OS, NMA, Geodatasysreiser, GSA, GSI and the GIS User Community
 - Tourist site names, coordinates and information from Ghana Tourism Authority. Accessed March 2026

Image Credits

- Paga Crocodile Pond, photo: Enoch Manaba, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0
- Larabanga Mosque, photo: Felix Parker, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 3.0
- Boabeng-Fiema Monkey Sanctuary, photo: Mallibu xxox, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0
- Lake Bosomtwe, photo: Noathalorwu, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0
- Boti Falls, photo: magwanwagwan, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 3.0
- Nzulezu Stilt Settlement, Bright Kwame Ayisi, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0
- Cape Coast Castle: Rjuzilii, Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 3.0
- Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park, photo: David, Flickr, CC BY 2.0